

The Affiliated Network on Social Accountability-Africa (ANSA-A) and
The Economic Governance Programme of IDASA (IDASA-EGP)

Invites you to

A Book Launch

SOCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY IN AFRICA

Practitioners' Experiences and Lessons

12 May 2010

09h00 – 13h00

Capital Hotel School and Training Academy
919 Church Street (between Hill and Orient Street) Pretoria

Directions:

http://www.capitalhotelschool.co.za/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=5&Itemid=74

RSVP: Hakima Haithar by 5 May 2010

Tel: 012 392 0539 or 072 515 2509

E-mail: hhaithar@idasa.org.za

Programme

- 09h00-10h00 Welcome tea & Registration
- 10h00-10h20 Welcome remarks and introduction to IDASA EGP
- Paul Graham, Executive Director, IDASA*
- 10h20-10h40 Introduction to ANSA-AFRICA and the social accountability framework
- Russell Wildeman, ANSA-Africa Director, Economic Governance Programme, IDASA*
- 10h40-11h40 Panel discussion: Emerging issues, challenges and personal experiences in social accountability work
- Joyce Nyamweya,*
Senior Regional Advisor, Governance and Public Administration, United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) and author of Chapter 7 (Improving Public Service Delivery – Kenya’s Public Service Reform, 2003-2007)
- Derek Luyt,*
Head of Media and Advocacy, Public Service Accountability Monitor (PSAM), Centre for Social Accountability and author of Chapter 1 (Seeking Social Accountability from Provincial Government in South Africa)
- Alexander O’Riordan,*
Consultant and author of Chapter 12 (Towards an Enabling Environment for Social Accountability in Kenya)
- 11h40-12h00 Open discussion
- 12h00-13h00 Finger lunch

* Attendees will receive a complimentary copy of the book*